PRESIDENT'S REPORT

G'day Hurricaners,

Well the February club day has been run and I must say that the twilight idea worked really well.

I'm looking forward to our second meeting with the late start this weekend .It's great to see Hurricaners doing well around the open rounds with another haul of podiums from the Western Cup round 2.

Preparations have started for the Brian Smith memorial in May and that will lead us in to our busy section of the year with W/C round 4 and before we know it the KOTH 2018 will be on our door step.

It's great to see so many loyal members sticking around after racing to socialise and cheer on our winners for the day. Last meeting we ran short of sausages thanks to the club butcher (no names [Robbie – ed.]) but I assure you all there will be plenty of bangers on the BBQ for the March club day.

Sticking back is a great benefit for the club and fellow members' alike. Grab a drink and wind down you will be sure to strike a conversation with someone and maybe form a friendship with some of the great people Hurricane is fortunate to have not to mention a little extra revenue to the club through the bar.

In closing thanks to all the members for making Hurricane your place to race and also a big cheers to the team of volunteers who put it in every race day

See ya at the track!
